Exhibitor & Sponsorship Opportunities

The Albemarle Commission Area Agency on Aging's 10th Annual World Elder Abuse Awareness Day Walk

Thursday, June 5, 2025

World Elder Abuse Awareness Day (WEAAD) is celebrated annually on June 15th. The purpose of WEAAD is to provide an opportunity for communities around the world to promote a better understanding of abuse and neglect of older persons by raising awareness of the cultural, social, economic and demographic processes affecting elder abuse and neglect.

We invite your agency/organization to become a SPONSOR and/or EXHIBITOR for this important community event! This is a great opportunity to showcase your agency, organization or business. Acknowledgements of sponsors will be placed in publicity, participant registration packets and announced at the event. Complete the attached Registration Form and return by May 9, 2025.

The 10th Annual Walk Toward Awareness is hosted by the Albemarle Commission Area Agency on Aging in partnership with the City of Elizabeth City, Pasquotank County, ECPC Parks and Recreation Department, Elizabeth City Police Department, Elizabeth City Fire Department and Pasquotank-Camden EMS.

All Participants, Sponsors and Exhibitors must pre-register for this event.
